PORTS OF CALL

These are highlights of the cities you'll be visiting. Shore excursions are available for these sights as well as many others at an additional cost.

QUEEN ELIZABETH™
CUNARD®

Seattle, Washington

Beautifully green in every season (the source of its Emerald City moniker), it's a destination that seems to have it all. Big industry, blissfully coexisting alongside small independent businesses. Top-quality seafood (courtesy of its position on the Puget sound). A beautifully balanced blend of city parks, waterfront walks, and beaches, that set the scene for all sorts of outdoor adventures. Time to explore may be limited due to flight schedules. Consider a pre or post-night to fully enjoy this port. Call us for pricing ~ 1-800-423-0247

Sitka, Alaska

Sitka is a hidden beauty located on the east coast of Baranof Island in south east Alaska. Towered over by snowy mountains in the distance, it was previously known as the Indian River Park and Totem Park. Sitka National Historical Park is the oldest national park in Alaska and, in most visitors' eyes, a must-see destination. The warm welcome and natural wonders of Sitka simply cannot be missed when going to Alaska.

Glacier Bay National Park, Alaska

With snow-capped peaks, abundant wildlife and shimmering glaciers, it's no wonder Glacier Bay National Park is the crowning jewel of Alaska's Inside Passage.

Ketchikan, Alaska

Tiny Ketchikan is just 3 miles long and 3 blocks wide, but here you'll find Alaska's busiest waterfront, buzzing with float planes, fishing boats and pleasure craft. You'll witness local life with hardy fishermen working on crab trawlers catching local delicacies like King Crab, octopus, shark, prawns and Rock fish. It is not only known as Alaska's First City due to geographically being the first place travellers stopped when heading north, it is also a figurehead of the outstanding natural beauty of Alaska.

Victoria, Canada

Victoria is a unique blend of historic charm and contemporary charisma, offering an exquisite variety of sights, drawing visitors from around the world. Notable landmarks such as Craigdarroch Castle and the elegant Empress Hotel contrast with bohemian shops and restaurants ashore. You can also do a spot of whale watching and wildlife viewing on and around the water of this sophisticated seaside city.
